Massey Area Museum Closing – Finances Will Dictate Future Decisions

By Rosalind Russell - The board of the Massey Area Museum has made the decision to close the museum as of the end of this month because of financial stress.

According to the release, rather than remaining open throughout the year, the board has made the decision to close as of August 24th.

They will continue to do the Catch the Ace weekly and host possible limited fundraising throughout the year. The financial situation will be reviewed in late fall and depending on the results, will dictate if it reopens in 2025. The board also extended thanks to the volunteers and wider community for their support.

Cambrian College Students Experience Indigenous Culture In Australia

By Rosalind Russell - They may live on opposite sides of the globe, but Indigenous students at Cambrian College have a lot in common with their counterparts in Australia.

A team of 20 students including Shylah

Meawassige of Serpent River First Nation have just returned from an educational and cultural exchange after spending 13 days at the University of Wollongong and the Daintree Rainforest. She says while there they learned about Australia's Indigenous peoples, their history, culture and activism as part of Australia's own process of truth and reconciliation.

Meawassige, who is entering her second year in the Heavy-Duty Equipment Technician program says such experiences provide growth -- personal, spiritual or emotional, so she is proud of taking part in such a unique educational experience. Cambrian was one of three schools Algonquin College in Ottawa and Georgian College in Barrie, to take part in the exchange.
