Manitoulin Manor Opens New Garden For Residents

By Rosalind Russell - The Manitoulin Centennial Manor courtyard was the perfect setting for a new garden, which was officially opened last weekend. “Mary’s Garden” at the manor in Little Current was officially opened with a ribbon cutting in memory of the late Mary den Otter. The support of the family, Joe, Allen, and David DenOtter, along with funding from the annual Tree of Lights opened the way for the new addition for residents and guests who come to visit. A unique mural was painted on the outside wall by local area artist Maxim Grunin to add the finishing touch to the living space. Following the ribbon cutting, both residents and guests were treated to a light lunch and cake.

Nairn Park Opening – Baseball Field Revamped

By Rosalind Russell - Nairn & Hyman Township’s Mayor is proud of the challenging work her council and staff has put towards revamping the baseball field, which had fallen into disuse over the years. The township asked the residents what they would like to see in the space, says Mayor Amy Macey, and the field now has a park for people to enjoy. She says there is new play sculptures and a picnic table, which is designed to be used by people who may have mobility concerns, and has been landscaped. Macey says the wider community can attend the official opening on Saturday, July 6th at two pm for the ribbon cutting and cake, followed by children’s games, a barbecue and adult slo-pitch game in the early evening.

Espanola's Christi Belcourt Featured On Stamp

By Rosalind Russell - An Espanola Indigenous artist has been honoured with the release of a new Canadian stamp. Christi Belcourt of Espanola is a Métis visual artist and environmentalist known for her intricate paintings that emulate Métis floral beadwork.

A stamp, the third in the latest series released by Canada Post, was officially launched at a gathering held in Ottawa. Born in Scarborough, Ontario and raised in Ottawa, she is a descendant of the Métis community of Lac Ste. Anne in Alberta.

Among her most poignant works is Walking With Our Sisters, an installation of more than 2,000 pairs of beaded moccasin tops honouring the lives of missing or murdered Indigenous women, Two-Spirit people and children. The new stamps and collectibles are available at canadapost.ca and postal outlets across Canada.

National Indigenous Day A Learning Experience

By Rosalind Russell - Noojmowin Teg hosted this year's National Indigenous Day gathering held at the Espanola Regional Recreation Complex last Friday. There were several booths set up at the complex including Cheyanne Pitawanakwat from Whitefish River First Nation who provided a workshop on turning fish skin and scales into leather, and then in turn, into jewellery, adornments or clothing.

The Flames Drum Group from AB Ellis Public School also opened the ceremony and provided the music throughout the day.

Made up by elementary students, the group was formed some three years ago when the drum was donated to the school.

The day also featured a traditional fish and chips lunch, workshops and giveaways from the various health groups hosting the booths.
